OneBridge Announces Four New Clients

Card Processor Adds Clients in Wyoming, California, Delaware and Pennsylvania

INDIANAPOLIS (November 17, 2009) - OneBridge, a credit and debit card processor for financial institutions nationwide, announced today it has signed four geographically dispersed institutions for credit, debit and ATM card processing.

Unified People's Federal Credit Union of Cheyenne, Wyoming selected OneBridge for all aspects of its payment card program, including OneBridge's Gateway Credit, Debit Connection, and ATM Terminal services.

United Health Credit Union of Burlingame, California chose OneBridge's Gateway Credit solution to bring its credit card program in-house.

New Castle County School Employees FCU of in New Castle, Delaware, is also bringing its outsourced credit card program in-house program using Gateway Credit.

Ukrainian Self Reliance FCU of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania is starting a Visa Check Card program using Debit Connection.

Whether the objective was credit, debit, or ATM card processing – or a consolidated solution for a multi-faceted payment card program – these institutions cited "value" as a primary reason for choosing OneBridge. Each institution realized that OneBridge's feature-rich solutions provided them with greater control over their card programs while reducing their overall costs.

"OneBridge provides leading-edge card technology solutions and high-touch customer service at highly competitive rates," said Jim Kern, OneBridge President, "It's gratifying that when institutions review all aspects of their card programs they recognize and respond to the exceptional value that OneBridge represents."
